Announcements:

Christmas in the Village – Thursday December 8th from 5-8 p.m.

The Student Services Parent Advisory Council (SSPAC) is looking for an event coordinator to serve on its advisory council for the current academic year. Position responsibilities include recruiting speakers regarding special education issues, managing the logistics of the events, and attending the monthly SSPAC meeting. The SSPAC strives to provide at least two events per academic year which are open to the entire community. If you are interested in the position, please contact Margo Killoran at viviennegirl@comcast.net or at 978-468-6246. The Student Services Parent Advisory Council serves as a support group for parents of children with disabilities as well as an advisory panel to the school administration. Any interested party is welcomed to serve on our advisory council and in this position.
