PUBLIC HEARING
7:25 p.m.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• After a period of public comment, the Board of Selectmen, as licensing authority, will consider approving an amended flammables license for Cumberland Farms, Inc at 121 Bay Road, in connection with the redevelopment proposal currently before the ZBA. In accordance with Section 13 of M.G.L.c.148 the requested amended license would enable the underground storage of a total of 40,000 gallons of flammable liquids at the site. The application seeks approval of two 20,000 gallon underground storage tanks. Each tank has a 12,000 gal and an 8,000 gallon compartment. One tank will</li></ul> house 20,000 gallons of flammable liquid (gasoline) and the second tank will house 12,000 gallons of flammable liquid (gasoline) in one compartment and 8,000 gallons of combustible liquid (diesel) in the other. The location of the underground tanks will match the plan to be approved by the ZBA. The site currently houses two 12,000 gallons tanks for flammable liquid (gasoline), a total of 24,000 gallons. There is no combustible liquid (diesel) currently stored at the site. Attorney John T. Smolak will address questions of the Board and the public.
