Mission: We put the North Shore to work

Through collaborative leadership, the North Shore WIB ensures that programming across multiple organizations and educational institutions meets evidence-based business and worker needs for highly valued skills in our very competitive labor market.

Interested members of the public who wish to attend should contact Mary Sarris, WIB Executive Director, at 978-741-3805 with questions or for directions.

The North Shore WIB is a public/private partnership which provides a central point where citizens, businesses, labor and community leaders create programs that ensure our workforce has the skills our employers need today and tomorrow.

We are a diverse group of North Shore Professionals representing education, business and government committed to understanding business and workforce needs. We implement services and programs that match workforce skills with business requirements, thus sustaining stable, long term employment.
