FOOD MANAGER CERTIFICATION REGULATION

In an effort to clarify Chapter 2, section 2-103.11 of the Federal Food code 1999 Edition and Section 590.003 subsection #2 of the State Sanitary Code Article X Minimum Standards for Food Establishments, the Hamilton Board of Health hereby adopts the following regulation.

“All food service establishments licensed by the Hamilton Board of Health shall employ a food handler(s) who has completed a Board and DPH approved accredited program leading to certification in food protection management who must be present at all times during the hours of operation of said establishment.”

Penalty for Violation:

Any person who violates the provision of this regulation or any owner of a food service establishment licensed by the Board who violates this regulation may be subject to administrative fines and/or suspension of their license to operate.

Variance:

The Board may grant a variance from this regulation provided a written request for said is filed with Hamilton Board of Health.

This regulation shall take effect on September 1, 2008.
